- * Maximum applies to combined in and out-of-network benefits.
-  Copay is billed separately and not due at time of service. Copay does not count towards coinsurance or out-of-pocket maximum.
- + Payment for out-of-network facility covered expenses is determined based on Aetna's Market Fee Schedule. Payment for out-of-network non-facility covered expenses is determined based on the negotiated charge that would apply if such services were received from a Network Provider.

This material is for information only. A summary of exclusions is listed in the Aetna Advantage Plan brochure. For a full list of benefit coverage and exclusions refer to the plan documents. Plans may be subject to medical underwriting or other restrictions. Rates and benefits vary by location. Aetna receives rebates from drug manufacturers that may be taken into account in determining Aetna's Preferred Drug List. Rebates do not reduce the amount a member pays the pharmacy for covered prescriptions. Health insurance plans contain exclusions and limitations. Information is believed to be accurate as of the production date; however, it is subject to change. Investment services are independently offered by the HSA Administrator.

Aetna Advantage Plans for Individuals, Families and the Self-Employed are underwritten by Aetna Life Insurance Company (Aetna) through a blanket trust in Delaware. This means that the plan benefits are based on Delaware requirements, and benefits and rates are filed with the Delaware Insurance Department. In some states, individuals may qualify as a business group of one and may be eligible for guaranteed issue, small group health plans. To the extent permitted by law, these plans are medically underwritten and you may be declined coverage in accordance with your health condition.
